

FORT LAUDERDALE, FL- Alan Weisberg, a founding partner at Christopher & Weisberg, P.A., has been featured in the 2008 South Florida Business Journal's Book of Law. The article Firms Survive and Thrive in a Tough Market highlights Christopher & Weisberg's steady growth as a firm despite the significant economic downturn. Mr. Weisberg is quoted saying, "We are happy with the growth we've seen and staying on our own, despite regular solicitation by larger firms."

Alan Weisberg is a Registered Patent Attorney. A former engineer and consultant for IBM, with over 20 years of technical experience, Mr. Weisberg holds a J.D., cum laude, and an M.S. in Information Science from Pace University, and a B.S.E.E degree from the Rochester Institute of Technology. Mr. Weisberg has extensive experience in patent and trademark prosecution, intellectual property litigation, legal opinions related to intellectual property, Internet issues, technology licensing. Having special knowledge of computer and communications hardware and software technology, Mr. Weisberg is a former member of the board of directors of the Florida Council of the AeA (formerly the American Electronics Association) and is an active lecturer and panelist. Mr. Weisberg is licensed to practice law in Florida and New York and is admitted to the U.S. District Courts for the Southern and Middle Districts of Florida and the Southern, Northern and Eastern Districts of New York. Recognized by other Florida lawyers a "Key Partner" and leading lawyer, Mr. Weisberg has also been a featured presenter at the Intellectual Property Roundtable, sponsored by the Daily Business Review, and he has been quoted in prominent publications such as the Wall Street Journal. He has also been selected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America.

Christopher & Weisberg, P.A. is a boutique intellectual property law firm with offices in Ft. Lauderdale, FL and Washington, D.C. The firm limits its practice to intellectual property matters such as obtaining and litigating trademarks, copyrights, and patents.